

CROUTER, MABEL HILL
December 20, 1865-February 21, 1942

Mrs. Mabel Crouter, 75, passed away in Greeley, Colo., Saturday afternoon, February 21. Mrs. Crouter is the widow of C.W. Crouter, early day businessman of Wheatland, and was active in club and social life of the community.

She was born December 20, 1865 in Hillsboro, Colo. In 1902, the Crouters moved to Wheatland where they resided for many years. Mr. Crouter was engaged in the drug store business here.

Mrs. Crouter was a member of the Wheatland Chapter, O.E.S., and a charter member of the local W.T.K. club. In recent years, she had made her home in Denver and Greeley, Colo., and in the Philippine Islands.

Services were held Tuesday from the Macy Funeral Home in Greeley. Following the services, the body was shipped to Denver for cremation and the ashes brought to Wheatland for burial in the Wheatland cemetery beside her husband.

Survivors include two sons, Clealle of Denver and Edgarton of Bago, Philippine Islands, besides other relatives and a host of friends.

Those attending the funeral services in Greeley were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buechner, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. George Grant, and Miss Agnes Grant of Wheatland, and Mrs. Arthur Kline of Cheyenne.
