

Last rites held for Mrs. Etta Curtis, long time resident

7-8-1963
Services were held July 11, 1963 at 10:30 a.m. in the Methodist church for Mrs. Etta L. Curtis, a resident of this area for 51 years. Rev. Clifford Polson, Sr. officiated with burial in the Wheatland cemetery. Donald Throckmorton, Richard Johnson, Alvis Marshall, Hal Ashenhurst, Raymond Wilson and John Thalke served as casket bearers.

Mrs. Curtis was born to Preston and Cordelia Hiatt in Moravia, Ia. August 22, 1890. She entered the Platte Memorial Hospital June 26 and passed away there July 8, 1963. She was a member of the Antelope Gap Grange and the Methodist church.

Mrs. Curtis served for many years as correspondent for the Record and Times, keeping the county informed on Antelope Gap news. After Mr. Curtis' retirement they moved to Wheatland to make their home.

Many friends and the following relatives share their grief: her husband, Homer M. Curtis Sr.; a son, Homer M. Curtis, Jr.; two daughters, Mrs. James (Lucille) Valentine and Mrs. Chester (Margaret) Marshall and a sister, Mrs. Merle Hudson, all of Wheatland.

There are also six grandchildren and four great grandchildren.
