

DANIEL, CHARLES W.

August 20, 1882-November 29, 1921

Charles Daniel was found dead in bed about 10:00 p.m. Tuesday, shortly after having retired. Mr. Daniel had been very sick a short time previously, but was believed to be recovering. He had not complained of serious illness before retiring and his death came as a shock to members of his family. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his demise.
