

DAVIS, JESSIE A, WHALEN
April 11, 1883-January 28, 1948

Jessie A. Davis, wife of Jesse Davis, died at her home after an extended illness, January 28, at the age of 63.

Born in Deep River, Ind., April 11, 1883, she had been a resident of Wheatland for 43 years. Prior to coming here, she had made her home in Livingston, Mont.

She was a member of the Eastern Star and the Rebekahs, and affiliated with the Church of the Latter Day Saints.

She leaves to mourn her death besides her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Gladys Morey of Cheyenne and Mrs. Wynetta Watrous of Cheyenne; four sons, Shirley, Preston and Harris, all of Wheatland and Milton of Los Angles, Calif.; two brothers, Orson Whalen of Golden, Colo. and Beryl Whalen of California; four sisters, Miss Belle Whalen of Wheatland, Mrs. Violet Fulk of Casper, Mrs. Mary Hobbs of Salinas, Calif., and Mrs. May Branch of East Canton, Ohio; 18 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

Funeral services will be held Friday (today) in the Methodist church. The Morman Elders of Scottsbluff, Nebr., will officiate. Burial will be in the Wheatland cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Frank Kuehner, Harold Hobson, Roger Mills, Ray Howard, John Peters, and Roy Krusee

Honorary pallbearers will be Mrs. George Foster, Mrs. Harold Hobson, Mrs. John Burk, Mrs. Roy Kruse, Mrs. Harry Dawson and Mrs. Ray Howard.