

DAVIS, SHIRLEY E.

April 22, 1903-January 5, 1968

Shirley E. Davis, of Rawlins, a former Wheatland resident, succumbed to an illness of one month, on January 5, at DePaul Hospital in Cheyenne. He was 64 years of age at the time of his death. Funeral services were held this morning (Thursday) from the Schrader Chapel at 11:00 a.m. with Rev. Daniel Cronk officiating. Serving as pallbearers were Frank Rumsey, Charles Schrimmer, Sterling Bostwick, George Deemer, Coll Whittaker, and Fred Ryff.

Mr. Davis was born April 22, 1903 at Livingston, Mont. and was a resident here from 1903-1951 when he moved to Laramie. He had resided in Rawlins since 1958, and had been employed by the U.P Ry. Co. for 15 years. He was married March 20, 1954 to Helen B. Biggs who survived him. He is also survived by two daughters, Mrs. Janice Bowers, Littleton, Colo., and Mrs. Marilyn Rae Christensen of Englewood, Colo.; three brothers, Preston and Harris, both of Wheatland, Milton, Los Angles, Calif.; and two sisters, Mrs. Gladys Morey and Mrs. Wynette Watrous, both of Cheyenne. Nine grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive. He was preceded in death by his parents, Jesse and Jessie Davis.