

Elmer DeLozier

Elmer DeLozier, 67, died at Bishop Randall Hospital Tuesday, Aug. 19, 1980.

He was born Nov. 22, 1912, at Wausau, Neb., to William and Lela (Baudette) DeLozier. He married his wife Garnett June 5, 1935, in Yankton, S.D.

He moved to Lander in 1960 from Wheatland and he worked for Hallam, Inc. for 18 years as a mechanic.

Survivors include: his wife; son Bob DeLozier of Rock Springs; daughter Shirley Hornecker of Lander; brothers Rubin DeLozier of Randolph, Neb., and Floyd DeLozier of Twin Falls, Idaho; sisters Clara Milander of Coleridge, Neb., Bess Habernrecht of Hardington, Neb., and Alva Strivens of Bloomfield, Neb., and four grandchildren.

Services were Friday, Aug. 22, at the First Christian Church with the Rev. Michael Damiano officiating. Burial was at 5 p.m. Friday at the Wheatland Cemetery.