

Verda Mae Day-1919 to 1997

8-5-1997

Funeral Services for Verda Mae Day were held on Friday, Aug. 8, 1997 at 10 a.m. at the Medicine Bow Episcopal Church, with Rev. Todd Sermon officiating.

Church, the American Legion Auxillary, and the Episcopal ladies Guild.

She is survived by her husband Robert Day, of Medicine Bow; her daughter, Sandra Dovey and her husband, Richard, of Diamondville; a son, Casey and his wife, Coriene, of Miles City, Mont.; a brother, Robert Grant, of Wheatland; and a sister, Helen Wilson, of Cody. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Shawn Dovey, of Laramie, Brett Dovey, of Kemmerer; Christa Schateo, Kemmerer; Ashley Day, of Miles City, Mont. and Mackenzie Day, of Miles City, Mont. She is also survived by three great grandchildren, Kylor, Shaylee, and Jori.

Friends called one hour prior to the services at 9 a.m. for visitation at the church in Medicine Bow. Graveside Services and Interment will be held on Friday at 3 p.m. at the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland.

Verda died at her home in Medicine Bow, on Tuesday, Aug. 5, 1997 at the age of 78. She was born on Oct. 12, 1919 in Wheatland, the daughter of Duncan Paul and Mary Cora (Greenlee) Grant.

She married Robert A. Day on Jan. 3, 1941 in Kimball, Neb. She worked at the Medicine Bow Post Office for 20 years, and serving 9 of those years as the Postmaster. She attended the University of Wyoming, was a member of the Medicine Bow Episcopal

She was preceded in death by her parents.

The Family has requested that memorial donations be made to the Medicine Bow Medical Clinic.

Rostad Mortuary of Rawlins was in charge of arrangements.