

In the mid-1980s Tyler saw the need to reactivate his construction business. Little did he know that his experience and quality of work would keep him busier than the ranch. Tyler Dodge Construction was in demand all over southeastern Wyoming and was always one of the first called when a wildfire got out of hand. His family, friends, neighbors, and the surrounding community benefited from his expertise and advice when it came to building dams, roads, stock water tanks, foundations, and more.

Through it all, Tyler and Nettie worked side by side for almost 51 years, raising their three daughters and creating a legacy.

Tyler is survived by his beloved wife, Nettie. His three daughters, Nina (Tim Bookout) and Carolyn (Chris Gdowski) both of Denver, Colo, and Andi (Dave Bush) of Wheatland, WY. His ten grandchildren, Tyler Anderson and Keali and Kyle Bookout; Meagan, Connor, Blake, and Makayla Gdowski; and Ryan, Travis, and Michael Bush. His great-grandchildren, Khairi and Claire Bookout. His brother David (Betty) of Wheatland, WY and his niece CeeAnn (Ed Vaughan) of Albuquerque, NM.

A memorial service will be held April 24, 2017 at 11:30 AM at the Wheatland Bible Church. Donations to: 10th Mountain Division Foundation, Inc. – 133 South Van Gordon Street, Suite 200, Lakewood, CO 80228, and Hillsdale College – 33 East College Street, Hillsdale, MI 49242 are appreciated.

Gorman Funeral Homes – Platte Chapel of Wheatland, Wyoming are in charge of the arrangements.

Please send condolences to the family at www.gormanfh.com.