

DOUTHITT, PHILLIP MORRIS

April 24, 1906-February 6, 1966

Born in Wheatland on April 24, 1906, Phillip Morris Douthitt died suddenly at his ranch home 20 miles west of Wheatland on Feb. 6, 1966. Mr. Douthitt served with the U.S. army during World War II.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Josepha Douthitt, sister, Mrs. James Angle and brother, Basil Douthitt, all of Wheatland, and a sister, Mrs. Otis Ready of Worland.

Mr. Dale Scheffler conducted the funeral service at the Schrader Chapel on February 10 at 2:00 p.m. Military honors were held at the graveside in the Wheatland cemetery.