

2-15 LELAND F. DUFF 1984
Services for Leland F. Duff, 59, who died in Denver, Colo., Feb. 15 were held at the First Baptist Church in Wheatland Tuesday, Feb. 19 at 10 a.m. with Pastor Roy Gilliland officiating.

Duff was born Sept. 26, 1925 in Gering, Neb., the son of Frank and Alma Duff. He received his education in Gering before moving to Wheatland in 1939.

He worked on various ranches in the Glendo area prior to entering the U. S. Army during World War II.

He and Zelma Mae Brawner were married Feb. 16, 1944 in Fort Leonard Wood, Kansas.

In 1946 he was discharged and returned to Wheatland where he farmed until 1959. At that time he became an equipment operator technician for the Federal Aviation Agency. He retired from the position in 1978, then owned and operated a paint store until the time of his death.

He also spent time creating miniatures.

Duff was a member of the First Baptist Church and served as manager of Camp Grace for several years.

Survivors include his wife, Zelma of Wheatland; one son, Richard Duff of Wheatland; six daughters: Shirley Preuit of Fort Collins, Colo., Phyliss Bach of Chugwater, Beverly Gritton of Cheyenne, Linda Trout of Littleton, Colo., Debbie Howard of Phoenix, Ariz., and Donna Kinsley of Wheatland; one brother, Walter Duff of Longmont, Colo.; one sister, Anna Wambolt of Huntley; and eight grandchildren.

A memorial in his name has been established to the Fletcher Park Youth Foundation (Camp Grace) in care of the American Bank.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
