

Mildred L. Erlandson 1905 to 1997

Memorial services for Mildred L. Erlandson, were held Wednesday, April 9 at 3 p.m. at Westward Heights Care Center chapel in Lander, Wyo.

Cremation has taken place under the direction of Hudson's Funeral Home. Interment services were held later this summer in Wheatland.

Mrs. Erlandson died April 6 at Lander Valley Medical Center following a brief illness. She was born Nov. 10, 1905 in Belgrade, Neb. She was the daughter of Willard F. and Katie L. (Mendenhall) Jones.

The family moved to Wheatland in 1906. She received her education in the Wheatland public schools and later attended Colorado Teachers College and the University of Wyoming.

She taught school in Wheatland for 14 years. She loved teaching, learning, homemaking and church work. She was active in the WTK club of Wheatland for many years.

4-6-1997
July 20, 1938 she married Alfred Erlandson in Laramie.

They continued to make their home in Wheatland until moving to Lander in 1994 to be near their son and for health reasons.

She was affiliated with the Congregational Church in Wheatland and later the First Congregational Church in Cheyenne as well as the Wheatland Bible Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband Alfred on Nov. 4, 1996, her parents, three brothers and two sisters.

Survivors include one son, Ed and his wife Peggy of Lander; three grandsons, Gary of Farmington, N.M.; Russell of Sevierville, Tenn., and Bruce of Lander, and three great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, memorials to the Westward Heights Care Center memorial fund would be appreciated by the family.

Memorials may be sent in care of Hudson's Funeral Home in Lander 82520.
