

FLETCHER, LOUISA RIETZ
June 16, 1866-December 2, 1945

Mrs. Louisa Fletcher passed away at the hospital here Sunday, December 2, at the age of 79 years, death coming after a prolonged illness.

Born at Wyweca, Wisc., she came to Wheatland 63 years ago and had made her home in this community since that time.

Her four surviving daughters are Mrs. Hildred Sutherland of Wheatland, Mrs. Gladys Mullock of Torrington, Mrs. Etta Lockett of Glendo and Mrs. Olive Bergstrom of Santa Monica, Calif. One son, Fred F. Fletcher of Dwyer and a brother, Charles Rietz of Wheatland, sixteen grandchildren and nine great grandchildren also survive her.

Last rites were conducted at the Schrader chapel at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, December 4, by Rev. W.J. Hoare, and pallbearers were Charles Cox, Lowell Clark, Harry Coleman, M.I. Coleman, W.I. Sutherland, and Clarence Mullock.