

9-14 JAMIE E. FREEBURN 1986

Graveside services for Jamie E. Freeburn, 66, who died at his home in Wheatland, will be held in the Wheatland Cemetery Wednesday, Sept. 17, at 10:00 A.M. with Pastor Gordon Swedberg officiating. Mr. Freeburn died Sept. 14.

Born Oct. 25, 1919, in Woodford, Calif. Jamie Freeburn was the son of William E. and Julia Freeburn. As an infant he moved with his family to Exeter, Calif.

He attended Mare Island Naval Institute and when World War II started he was inducted into active Naval Duty, spending 3½ years in the Pacific aboard the USS Zelin. Upon being discharged from active duty he returned to California and was associated with various electrical contractors.

He and Mary Louise Ball were married in Exeter, Jan. 26, 1946. He retired from electrical work 4 years ago and he and Mary Louise moved to Wheatland 3 years ago to be near their son and his family.

Besides his wife he is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, Jim and Jolene Freeburn of Wheatland and four grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Willie Freeburn.

Memorial contributions in his name may be made to the Wheatland Bible Church.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home of Wheatland was in charge of arrangements.
