

FREEMAN, JAMES G.
May 4, 1865-October 1, 1907

J.G. Freeman, who lived on the Bard ranch on the Chug, with his family, passed away on Tuesday evening of this week, death having been caused by cancer, from which he had been suffering for several years. Funeral services were conducted from the house Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. E.L. Butler, of the M.E. church, and interment was made in the Wheatland cemetery.

The deceased is survived by a wife and several small children, a son being born to Mrs. Freeman Wednesday morning, only a few hours after the death of the husband and father. The bereaved family has the heartfelt sympathy of everyone.
