

GLENDENING, CLARENCE OVERTON

February 19, 1885-February 10, 1917

Clarence Overton Glendenning passed away on Saturday, Feb. 10. after an illness of three years from tuberculosis. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Glendenning, well-known and highly respected farmers living west of town. Clarence was born February 19, 1885. He served his country three years in the U.S. regular army, after which he went into lumber camps where he contacted the fatal disease which finally ended in death after a long fight. He had been very low for some weeks past and his death had been expected any day. He leaves to mourn his departure, his father and mother and nine brothers and sisters. Funeral services were from the home Sunday afternoon, by Rev. W.B. Phillips.
