

GOERTZ, HARRY
July 23, 1914-October 12, 1964

Harry Goerty, 50, succumbed suddenly at his home eight miles east of Chugwater, October 12, 1964. The deceased, who was a farmer, was born in Hillsboro, Kans., July 23, 1914 to Cornelius F. and Lena Ratzlaff Goertz, and had resided in the Chugwater area since he was two years old.

Funeral services were held at the Schrader chapel October 15, at 2:00 p.m., with Rev. Irvin Noyce officiating, and interment in the Wheatland cemetery.

Surviving relatives include his father and step-mother of El Cajon, Calif., step-sisters, Mrs. Jean Wolfe of Pomeroy, Calif., and Mrs. Marjorie McNichols of El Cajon, Calif.; brothers, Leroy and Albert of Wheatland, and Jacob and Manness of Slater; sisters, Mrs. Mary Olmstead of Slater, Mrs. Rachael Redding of Carpenter, Mrs. Naomi Wiggam of Meriden, and Mrs. Burnetta Ogle of Burns.

Casket bearers were Robert Kelso, Robert Wallenburn, Denzil Moxley, Sterling Bostwick, Walter Swan and Jack Kennedy.