

GONZALES, PAUL JR.
July 27, 1936-June 14, 1947

Services were held Tuesday morning from St. Patrick's church for Paul Gonzales, Jr., who was drowned in the Laramie River, near Cooper Lake, Sunday, June 29.

Paul was born in Wheatland July 27, 1936, and if he had lived a month longer, he would have been eleven years old. Besides his parents, he is survived by two brothers, Richard and Basil and two sisters, Irene and Susan Kathleen of Cooper Lake, and a grandmother, Mrs. Juanita Rodriguez of Wheatland.

The Schrader Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements with Father Mills conducting the last rites.
