

Irene Love 'Rena' Good dies at 100

2-25-1997

WHEATLAND — A service for Christian burial for Irene Love "Rena" Good, 100, will be conducted today at 10 a.m. at All Saints' Episcopal Church in Wheatland by the Rev. Marion Canterbury. Inurnment will be in Wheatland Cemetery with graveside rites by the Order of Eastern Star Wheatland Branch No. 11.

Mrs. Good died Feb. 25, 1997, at Platte County Memorial Nursing Home in Wheatland. She was born Jan. 31, 1897, in Walnut Shade, Mo., the daughter of Elby and Irena (Haynes) Reed. In 1903, she moved with her family to Wheatland. After receiving her education, she worked in the telephone office for several years.

On June 3, 1919, she married Dr. George Herbert Good in Kimball, Neb. They made their home in Wheatland. She was a member of All Saints' Episcopal Church, the Episcopal Guild, Order of Eastern Star Wheatland Branch No. 11, and a bridge club. Mrs. Good enjoyed golf and fishing.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband on Nov. 29, 1977; four sisters; and two brothers.

Survivors include her son, George Good, a daughter-in-law, three grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and a step-great-grandchild, all of Wheatland; and a nephew.

Memorials to All Saints' Episcopal Church, P.O. Box 997, Wheatland, WY 82201, would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland is in charge of arrangements.