

GORDON, EDITH MAE MITCHELL

March 23, 1882-July 5, 1936

Mrs. David Gordon of Glendo, wife of a prominent rancher on the Horseshoe passed away July 5 (Sunday) after an illness of two weeks.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Congregational church with Rev. Flenner in charge of the services.

That Mrs. Gordon was greatly loved and held in high esteem by her many friends by attested by the large number who drove down from Glendo to attend the services and by the large and beautiful floral displays.

Pallbearers were Wm. Coulogue, Ernest Adams, Allie Hoffman, James Moran, Hans Christensen, Frank Prager.

Burial was made in the Wheatland cemetery. The Copley Funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Edith Mae Mitchell Gordon was born in Cherokee County, Iowa March 23, 1882 and died at Douglas, Wyoming Sunday, July 5, 1936.

She came to Wyoming in 1908 where she taught school for three years before her marriage to Mr. David Gordon of Glendo in February, 1911. To this union was born one son, David, who resides at home.
