

GOYEN, MABEL

?-May 8, 1971

Mrs. Mabel Goyen succumbed to an extended illness Friday, May 8, in Evanston, Wyoming. Born in Ames, Iowa and a resident of Wheatland since 1940, Mrs. Goyen was affiliated with the Methodist Church, and was a member of the Country Women's Club and the Golden Age Club.

Her husband, Charles E. Goyen, preceded her in death in 1953. She is survived by two sons, Dr. E.L. Maurer, Chula Vista, Calif., Marvin H. Maurer, Missoula, Mont., one brother, Oscar Peterson, Bassett, Neb., a grandson, Dr. Harold G. Montgomery of Wheatland and five other grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 12, at 10:00 a.m. in the Wheatland Methodist Church. Services were conducted by Rev. Henry Hartberg. Pallbearers were Herb Callen, William Schroetlin, Steve Kahler, Gary Kahler, and Tom Kahler, all of Wheatland. Interment was in the local cemetery with Schrader's in charge of arrangements.