

Mrs. Robert M. Grant Passes to Unknown

3-19-1933
Mrs. Robert M. Grant passed away at Memorial hospital Sunday at 3:12 p. m., after a lingering illness.

She had been ailing for a long time and about six weeks ago was taken to the hospital. The disease with which she was afflicted finally settled in her right foot and it was amputated. Later on she submitted to another operation and the limb was amputated above the knee with the hope of saving her life, but it was not to be.

She made a brave fight and several times it was thought she was on the road to recovery but her weakened condition coupled with the operations was more than she could stand.

Mrs. Grant was a loving wife, devoted to her husband and her home, a good neighbor and a christian woman. What more can be said of one who had lived her life as it was willed.

Funeral services were held in Cheyenne Monday afternoon at 2:30, after which the remains were taken to Wheatland where another service was held at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday and she was laid to rest in the cemetery at that place.

Her nearest relative in this country is her husband and to him goes out the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community. The rest of her relatives live in Australia to which country she paid a visit two years ago.

Mrs. Mary Grant, wife of Robert M. Grant of Chugwater, died in Memorial Hospital Sunday afternoon, following an illness of many weeks.

Mrs. Grant was 46 years old. She came to the United States from New Zealand and first located in Chugwater about 20 years ago.

She is survived by her husband, who is manager of the Grant Hotel in Chugwater; three sisters, Miss Ethel Charlesworth, Miss Ida Charlesworth and Miss Myra Charlesworth, all of Sidney, Australia; a brother, Elliott Charlesworth, also of Sidney; and her mother, Mrs. James Charlesworth of Sidney.

A service was held Monday at 2:30 p. m. in Schrader's Funeral Home, Cheyenne Oak Leaf Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star officiating.

The body was taken overland Monday evening to Wheatland, where funeral services will be held in the Masonic Temple Tuesday at 2 p. m. Chugwater Laurel Leaf Chapter, No. 25, of Chugwater will be in charge of the service, the Rev. C. E. PerLee assisting. Burial will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Arrangements are by Schrader's Funeral Home.
