

HAEBERLE, ARCH CLARK, JR.
September 13, 1926-December 27, 1975

Funeral services were held Tuesday, December 30, 1975, for Clark Haeberle at the Wheatland High School Auditorium. Rev. Jim More conducted the services. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Clark passed away at the age of 49 at the Rose Memorial Hospital, Saturday, December 27, 1975, after a brief illness. A lifetime resident of Wheatland, he was born here September 13, 1926. He served in World War II in the US Navy. Clark and Zonetta Marshall were married in Wheatland February 24, 1948.

Although Clark ran his own real estate and insurance business, he found time to involve himself in numerous activities for the good of his community. As a member of the Lion's Club, he served as State Cabinet Secretary for the organization. He served as President of the Wheatland Country Club and President of the Golf Club.

He was also a member of the local V.F.W., American Legion, the Cowboy Joe Club and the Wheatland Chamber of Commerce.

Clark founded Wheatland's Jr. Riding Club, the Laramie Peak 4-H Horse Club, and helped to start the Blue and Gold Club for the Wheatland High School. He was also a leader in the campaign to rebuild the Wheatland theater.

He was awarded the Jaycee's Distinguished Service Award for being instrumental in building the 4-H barn at the fairgrounds.

He is survived by his wife Zonetta; two sons, Steven and Lance; his daughter, Mrs. Dave (Norma) Hunt; and two grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a sister, Norma.

Bill Jones, Joe Bowen, Gene Hayes, Ray Yost, Kohn Artery and John Wilhelm served as pallbearers.

A Memorial Fund has been established to the Wheatland Club House fund in care of Gene Hayes or Schrader-Prell Funeral Home.
