

Stephen Lee Haeberle

January 23, 1949 – January 18, 2008

A celebration of the life of Stephen Lee Haeberle, 58, was conducted on Friday, January 25, 2008, at the United Church of Christ in Wheatland, Wyoming, with Reverend Jane Willis officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

He died Friday, January 18, 2008, at his home in Arvada, Colorado, of natural causes.

Steve was born January 23, 1949, in Wheatland, the son of Arch "Clark" and Zonetta (Marshall) Haeberle. He was reared and educated in Wheatland, graduating from Wheatland High School. Steve was a champion athlete; as a member of the team that won the Wyoming State Football Championship in 1966 and in 1967, he won the Wyoming State Wrestling Championship in the 165 lb. Division. Steve "Haeb" Haeberle followed in his father's footsteps as a realtor and insurance salesman; and, recently as a businessman and entrepreneur with his son Quincy. Steve was a proud member of every community he lived. He was a faithful member of the Wheatland Jaycee's and the Lion's Club and served on the founding board of the Laramie Peak Museum Association. At the time of his death, he was a member of the executive committee of the Denver Susan G. Komen Foundation, "Race for the Cure".

Survivors include his two children, Quincy Haeberle and Crystal Haeberle both of Denver, Colorado; his mother, Zonetta Haeberle of Wheatland; a brother, Lance Haeberle of Frisco, Colorado; loving friends, Janis Haeberle and Judy Selock; and his K-9 sidekick, Paco.

He was preceded in death by his father on December 27, 1975; and a sister, Norma Haeberle Hunt.

Serving as pallbearers were Steve Allison, Dave Artery, Jerry Gebhart, Tyler Fisher, Mike Dreher, Shawn Phillips, Rick Bowen, and J.R. Good.
