

HAGERMAN, EARL C.
October 3, 1909-July 2, 1944

The body of Pvt. 1st Class Earl C. Hagerman will arrive in Wheatland today (Friday) for burial in the Wheatland cemetery. Graveside services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m., Rev. J. B. Milstead officiating, and the American Legion will be in charge of the military services.

Pvt. Hagerman was born in Florence, Colorado, Oct. 3, 1909, and was the husband of Jean Hagerman. He served with the 90th division during the war, and was killed in France, July 2, 1944.

Pallbearers will be Gilbert Small, Ned Dover, Ralph Hall, Jim Hall, Bee Worth and Jim Ross.