

Jean Angle Hagerman

2-19-1990

Graveside funeral services for Jean Angle Hagerman, 64, were held Tuesday, Feb. 26, at the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland, with Pastor Mark Patzke of the Covenant Lutheran Church officiating.

Mrs. Hagerman died Tuesday, Feb. 19 in Boise, Idaho.

Mrs. Hagerman, a homemaker, was born March 13, 1926 in Wheatland, the daughter of James and Juanita (Douthett) Angle. On Oct. 31, 1947, she was married to Gene Hagerman in Goodland, Kans. Jean loved her pets and was an avid reader. Her great sense of humor lifted the spirits of all who knew her. Jean's favorite time of the year was the spring.

She felt it was Mother Nature's way of giving life back to earth. With this spring, and the many springs to come, she will live on in our hearts.

She is survived by her husband, Gene Hagerman of Boise, Idaho, a son, Randen Hagerman, and two daughters, Sherm McNeff and Gena Hagerman, all of Boise, Idaho. Also surviving are three brothers, Jim, Jack and Charlie Angle, all of Wyoming, four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.
