After a long and full life Chuck Haggerty passed away on May 29, 2013. He was born Dec. 31, 1929 the son of Walter D. "Jump" and Velma (Baker) Haggerty. He and his brother Bruce were raised and educated in the school of hard knocks in the Wheatland area. Chuck served in the United States Marine Corps from 1951 to 1954.

Chuck was a working man. At one time or another, he worked at farming, ranching, livestock, horse training, roping and rodeo riding, horse showing, construction, heavy equipment operating, truck driving, auto worker, gardener, city councilman and gambler. He made claim to being a Jack-of-All-Trades, Master of Chuck was married to Virginia (Volman Lily), Dorothy (Lyman), Patsy (Vossler Anderson) and Belinda (Van Buskirk). He was father to Charlie, Bonnie (Westcott), Frank and Mike Haggerty. He was stepfather to Dan Lily, Dianna, Donna Lee, Pennie Jean, Teri Ann Anderson (Monte) and Alana Hohnholt (Mark). He was the proud grandfather of 11, though only KT and Willie Hohnholt, Brody Churchman, Kendra (Jocko) Ward and Jerry (Melissa) Ragsdale knew him well enough to call him Grandpa Chuck. He was great grandpa to 18.

He is survived by his wife Belinda, children Dan, Bonnie, Alana, Teri Ann and Pennie Jean.
