

HAHN, MARGERY JEAN
June 17, 1923-October 22, 1941

Marjorie Jean Hahn, former Wheatland was fatally injured Wednesday afternoon of this week, when the car in which she was riding with her grandfather, A.F. Uebelhoer of Denver, overturned south of Torrington. Miss Ruth Johnson of Lusk was also an occupant of the car, but she and Mr. Uebelhoer escaped with only slight injuries.

The party was enroute to Lusk from Denver when the accident occurred. Marjorie had been attending the Lamont School of Music and her grandfather was taking her home to spend several days vacation with her mother, Mrs. J.B. Viers, and family.

The Hahn family were long time residents of Wheatland and Marjorie's father, the late Chas. W. Hahn, was former publisher of the Wheatland Times. Marjorie had spent all of her school days in Wheatland until the family moved to Lusk in 1938 where she finished her last two years of high school and was graduated with the Class of 1940.

She was in the midst of every activity during her school days, was talented musically and was extremely popular wherever she was known, not only among her school friends, but all who knew her, young and old.

Immediate survivors are her mother, Mrs. J.B. Viers, a sister, Betty, a brother, Dick, her grandfather, Mr. Uebelhoer, an aunt, Mrs. Harry Tharp of Denver, and other relatives living in the east.

All Wheatland and community join in deepest sympathy with Mrs. Viers and family.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Peet mortuary in Lusk, with burial in the Wheatland cemetery. The Wheatland Job's Daughters will have charge of the service at the cemetery.
