

Alice Marie Hall

18-19-1994
Funeral services for Alice Marie Hall, 80, were held Monday, Oct. 24, 1994, at 2 p.m. at the United Church of Christ in Wheatland, with Rev. Dr. James S. Vuocolo officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Hall died Wednesday, Oct. 19, 1994 at her home in Wheatland.

Alice was born April 18, 1914 in Painesville, Ohio, the daughter of Joseph G. and Ida (Kelly) Tuttle. At the age of five, she moved with her parents to Wyoming where they homesteaded in the Garrett area. Alice was reared and educated in the country schools, and graduated from Laramie High School, and from the University of Wyoming with a Master's Degree in teaching.

On July 19, 1946, she married James C. Hall in Scottsbluff, Neb. Alice taught school for 41 years in Wyoming, retiring in 1979. She lived in the Wheatland area from 1946 until the time of her death.

She was an active ranchwoman for years and a member of many organizations. Alice was a member of the United Church of Christ, Laramie Dells, a 50-year Daughters of the American Revolution member, Dorcas Society, American Legion Auxilliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxilliary, National Education Association, and various other teacher's organizations.

She is survived by two children, Steve J. Starr of Ada, Okla., and Georgia Richards of Cheyenne, Wyo. Also remaining are a sister, Mrs. Howard (Edith) Mallory of Rock River, Wyo., seven grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, five nieces and two nephews.

Alice was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, James, on March 9, 1987, a sister, Dorothy Nettles, and two brothers, James R. Dent and George "Gordy" Dent.

An Alice Hall Memorial has been established at the Key Bank of Wyoming, 611 Ninth Street, Wheatland, WY 82201.

The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
