

HALL, RALPH A.

April 10, 1906-September 26, 1974

Funeral services for Ralph A. Hall were held Tuesday, October 1, 1974 at the United Church of Christ. Rev. Gordon Tritchler and Rev. Delbert Dick officiated at the 11:00 a.m. service. Pallbearers were Mac Smith, Perry Scranton, Shorty Wilson, Glen Dunlap, Charles McAuley, and Budd Palmer. Honorary pallbearers were George Sturgeon, George Dodge, Drummond Smith, Frank Soward, A.L. Kendig, Wm. Kennedy, Phil Rictz, Wick Hopkins, Ralph Case, G.O. Nixson, Ted Schrader, Jack Svalina, Wm. Dannar, Archie McAuley, Clem McAuley, Charles Shellhart, Gregory Montgomery, Herb Graves, Dale Windom, Ned Wedemeyer, Wm. Boyd, Tom Atkinson, Don Swanson, Clark Fritz, Orville Scranton, Bob Newkirk and H. Chas. Peck. Burial was at the Wheatland cemetery.

Ralph A. Hall died suddenly at the Tim Mylet residence on Thursday, September 26, 1974. He was 68 at the time of his death.

He was born in Platte County on the Grant Ranch on April 10, 1906. He attended Wheatland schools and two years at Fort Collins Agricultural School.

In 1932, he married Myrna Adams in Laramie. Mr. Hall was a lifetime resident of the Cuba Ranch until 1969 when he and his wife moved to Wheatland. He was a retired rancher and a member of A.F. & A.M. #16, and a 50 year member of the Wyoming Stockgrower Association.

Hall is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Tim (Shelia) Mylet, Wheatland; one brother, James Hall, Wheatland; three sisters, Mrs. Catherine Dunlap, Laramie, Mrs. Harry Small, Laramie, Mrs. Carrie Michelson, Cheyenne; three nieces, two nephews, 3 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. His wife, Myrna A. Hall, preceded him in death November 11, 1973.