

Sally Dean Hanneman

February 8, 1942 – August 27, 2019

Funeral services for Sally Dean Hanneman, 77, were held Friday, Aug. 30. at the Wheatland Bible Church in Wheatland with Pastor Jason Iacovetto officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Sally Hanneman passed away Tuesday, Aug. 27 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland.

Sally was born Sunday, Feb. 8, 1942 the daughter of William and Catherine (Mitchell) Clegg in Dayton, Ohio.

Sally and her family lived in Dayton until the age of four when they made the move to Thermopolis. She attended school in Thermopolis and graduated from Thermopolis High School in 1960. After graduation she attended Colorado State University in Fort Collins, Colorado and graduated with a Medical Technology degree in 1965.

She married Gary Bragdon in 1965 in Thermopolis and to this union three children were born.

Sally owned and operated a craft store in Windsor, Colo. before moving to Wheatland to work for Platte County Memorial Hospital. She then went into banking with Tri-County Savings and Loan. On May 8, 1987 she married Marc Hanneman in Wheatland. When her illness took over, she could no longer work.

When Sally was home she stayed in contact with her family and friends with the help of her computer. She stayed connected to the Lord and prayed for her everyone who she was close with.

Some of her hobbies included golfing, sewing, bridge, quilting, horseback riding, reading, but most of all she loved spending time with her friends and family. She was a member of the Wheatland Bible Church.

She is survived by her husband, Marc Hanneman; children, Rhonda Thaxton, Darrell Bragdon, and Sarah Salazar; step-children, Megan Hanneman-Campbell and Amy Smith; sister, Kitty McQuisten; and ten grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents and brother, William Clegg.

Serving as pallbearers were Galand Thaxton Sr., Galand Thaxton Jr., Gabriel Thaxton, Garrison Thaxton, John Campbell, and Ron Hagman

A memorial to the Platte County Library, 904 Ninth Street, Wheatland, WY 82201 would be appreciated by the family.

The Gorman Funeral Homes – Platte Chapel of Wheatland are in charge of the arrangements.
