

HARRISON, WARREN J.

1859-December 4, 1945

Services were held at 11 a.m. today (Thursday) in the Schrader chapel for Warren J. Harrison, 76, retired rancher, whose death in the Wheatland hospital occurred on Tuesday, December 4, after a brief illness. Pallbearers were Bill Sutherland, Walter Vaudrey, Manuel Rodriguez, Jerry Waitman, Bruce Mecker and A.R. Carpenter. The Rev. W.J. Hoare officiated.

The deceased was born in Bath, N.Y., but had lived and ranched in Wyoming for many years.

Surviving are three sisters, Alice, Flora and Artie in the state of New York; two brothers, Lester of Connie, N.Y. and Myron at Elsie, Mich.; and a step-son, R.J. Dolph of Casper. His wife preceded him in death about a year ago.
