DARRELL LEE HARTUNG

Services for Darrell Lee Hartung, 73, who died in Casper, April 15, were held April 19, in the First Christian Church of Wheatland at 10:30 a.m. with Dan Barcus officiating.

Darrell Hartung was born in Bassett, Neb., Sept. 13, 1910, the son of Burch L. and Alma Hartung. In 1914 the family moved to a farm south of Wheatland.

He received his education in the rural schools in the area. He and Ruby Acord were married Nov. 19, 1934. He spent some time working for the Great Western Sugar Company and purchased a farm south of Wheatland in 1942 which he operated until his retirement in 1973. His retirement years were spent in Wheatland.

He was a member of the Past Grand Patriarch of the Odd Fellows Lodge of Wheatland as well as a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Rock Lake Grange.

Memorial contributions in his name may be made to the Wyoming Eye Bank, to be sent by the Wheatland Odd Fellows in care of Jack Bruegman.

Survivors include his mother of Denver, his wife, a son, Duane Hartung of Wheatland, a daughter Sharon Roberts of Wheatland, a sister, Madeline Cowan of Denver, Colo., and two grandchildren, Tammie and Crystal Roberts.

He was preceded in death by his father, a brother, Doyle Hartung, and two sisters, Gladys Ragan and Audrey Goertz.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery. Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
