

HARVEY, FRED MADISON
August 24, 1930-April 24, 1968

Fred Madison Harvey, 37, died instantly Wednesday, April 24, at the H.E. Ketelson ranch when he was thrown from a tractor and crushed. Apparently, the rim and tire of the tractor came off, throwing the tractor into a sharp turn. Harvey had been a resident here since February, 1968, and had been employed at the Ketelson ranch for the past two months. Previous to coming to Wheatland, he had lived in Wellington, Colo. He was born in Leicester, Kans., Aug. 24, 1930, and was married to Mary H. Shoemaker in Winchester, Va., August 8, 1966. He served in the U.S. Army and was a veteran of the Korean war.

He is survived by his wife, Mary, four children and eight step-children, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harvey, Worcester, Mass., one brother and two sisters, also of Worcester.

Funeral services are pending with local arrangements in charge of Schraders.
