6-12-1991

Funeral services for Katherine E. Hauf, age 95, of Torrington, were held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Jan. 15, at the First United Church of Christ in Torrington, with the Rev. V. Howard Campbell officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery, at 2 p.m.

A memorial has been established at the Goshen County Memorial Nursing Home where she died on Saturday, Jan. 12.

Mrs. Hauf was born Oct. 26, 1895 at Dittle, Russia, the daughter of Jacob and Katherine (Reichert) Foos. In 1900, she moved to Winnipeg, Canada, with her parents. The family moved to Topcka, Kans., and in 1902, they moved to Sugar City, Colo. They also lived in Windsor, Colo., and several places in Weld County, Colo., where she grew up and attended school.

On Dec. 26, 1912, she married Fred Martin at Windsor. In 1936, they moved to a farm near Wheatland. Mr. Martin died in 1943. On Jan. 20, 1946, she married Henry Hauf at Wheatland.

They lived at Huntley, Wyo., for a time before they returned to Wheatland, where they retired. Mr. Hauf died in 1962. Katherine lived in several locations to be near her children. In 1988, she moved to Torrington.

She was a member of the United Church of Christ at both Wheatland and Torrington.

Survivors include her seven daughters, Lydia Kissel of Orem, Utah, Bertha Kissel of Torrington, Anna Walker of Torrington, Lorraine Lauck of Torrington, Mollie Shepherd and Katherine Lambert both of Cody, Wyo., and Ruth Medina of Sheridan, Wyo., and four sons, Fred Martin of Torrington, Walter Martin of Beaver City, Ariz., Howard Martin of Laramie, Wyo., and Robert Martin of Cody, Wyo.

Also surviving are a step-daughter, Mary Hill of Lingle, and a step-son, Henry Hauf, of Dayton, Ohio, a brother, George Foos of Billings, Mont., 41 grandchildren, 60 great-grandchildren, and 21 great-great-grandchildren.

In addition to her husbands, she was preceded in death by an infant daughter, four sisters and four brothers.

The Colyer Funeral Home of Torrington was in charge of arrangements.
