

Grace Havely

10-2-1987

Graveside services for Grace Havely, 89, who died in Wheatland Oct. 2, 1987, were held Monday at 11 a.m. in the Wheatland Cemetery with Pastor Gordon Swedberg officiating.

Grace Havely was born in Murdock, Neb., Oct. 4, 1897, the daughter of John J. and Myrtle (Gilmore) Gustin. Her early schooling was in the country schools of the area. She graduated from a three-year high school in Murdock, then took her senior year at Elmwood, Neb., with the class of 1915. Following graduation she took a piano teaching course at the Kenwood School of Music in Chicago, Ill. She taught piano for the next five years to local students.

On Nov. 11, 1919, she married Kenneth E. Sedman. They had two children, Betty J. Bookout and Robert E. Sedman. In 1933 she was united in marriage to Mark Havely. They made their home in Wheatland.

She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit #10 and the Banner Rehekah Lodge #16 of Wheatland and the A.A.R.P. and Senior Citizens.

Survivors include one daughter, Betty Bookout of Wheatland; a sister, Marguerite Allspach of Wheatland, three grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, K.E. Sedman and Mark Havely, her son, Robert Sedman, and a brother, Joe F. Gustin.

As a memorial, contributions may be made to the Services for Seniors in Wheatland.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home of Wheatland was in charge of arrangements.
