

HAWES, EDITH MAE

?-February 25, 1969

Miss Edith Mae Hawes, former Wheatland resident, succumbed in Michigan Feb. 25, according to the Schrader Funeral Home, which received word Wednesday morning. The body will be cremated in Chicago, and the remains will be interred in the family plot in the Wheatland cemetery.

Miss Hawes taught many years ago in the Wheatland schools, serving as principal of the grade school. She also officiated as superintendent of Platte County Schools for several years, and will be remembered affectionately by the many pupils whose lives came under her stern but kindly influence.

A brother, John Hawes, of Achorage, Alaska, survives. Another brother, Walter Hawes, preceded her in death some years ago.
