

HERRERA, CLEMENTE

1873-April 5, 1943

Clemente Herrera, 70, a resident of this community since 1929, died at the Wheatland hospital early Monday morning, death following an illness of four months.

Mr. Herrera, a retired coal miner, was born in Val Verve, N.M. He is survived by his wife, Adela R.; five sons, Joe, Laurence and Clemente, all of Wheatland, and Theodore and Mike of the U.S. Army; three daughters, Mrs. Lusita Montoya and Mrs. Jennie Garcia of Wheatland, and Mrs. Pauline Martinez of Calixeo, Calif. Twenty grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at the Catholic church in Wheatland, with Father Brendan Weishaar officiating, and Watson and Dennis in charge of arrangements.