

HERRERA, ESTHER V.
1902-February 7, 1936

Last week The Record recorded the birth of twin boys born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Herrera of Wheatland. Last Friday, the young mother died of pneumonia. The baby boys she left are reported to be doing well. Besides the husband, Mrs. Herrera is survived by a three-year old daughter, twin boys, two brothers and one sister.

Esther Herrera was born in New Mexico, and came to Wyoming several years ago, and was married here to Joe Herrera. Funeral services were held Sunday from the Catholic church in Wheatland, Father Bruno saying mass for the departed soul. W.B. Longwith had charge of funeral arrangements.
