

HESTER, NEWTON FULTON JR.

March 23, 1937-April 19, 2010

A funeral service for Newton Fulton "Bub" Hester Jr. was conducted on Monday, April 26, 2010 at the Niobrara Fairgrounds Auditorium in Lusk, Wyoming, with Pastor Tom Strock and Father Felix Sevilla Martinito Jr. officiating. Internment followed at the Wheatland Cemetery at Wheatland, Wyoming.

He died Monday, April 19, 2010 at the Davis Hospice Center in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Newton was born March 23, 1937, in Long Beach, California, the son of N. Fulton and Maesel E. (Watson) Hester. He was reared and educated in Cheyenne, Glendo and Wheatland; graduating from Wheatland High School in 1955. He attended Colorado State University in Fort Collins and Boise Community College in Boise, Idaho. On December 27, 1960, he married Ann M. Johnson in San Diego, California.

Newton worked road construction for a few years before joining in his father's farming-ranching operation in Keeline; an endeavor he was involved in until the time of his death. Newton was a member of the Cowboy Joe Club and a past member of the Wyoming Stockgrower's. He enjoyed traveling, golfing, watching basketball, and being involved with his grandchildren.

Survivors include his wife, Ann of Keeline; two sons, John (Sheri) Hester and Wade (Rachelle) of Ogden, Utah; a sister, Irma (John) Baker of Chugwater; and eight grandchildren: Hayden and Drew Hester of Keeline, Raeganne, Tayler, and Presley of Ogden, Zach (Laura) Milke of Durango, Colorado, Joe (Kelli) Milke and Sara (Rory) Scott., both of Greeley, Colorado.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a daughter, Kathy Street.

Memorials to the Davis Hospice Center, 6000 Sycamore Road, Cheyenne, Wyoming 82009 or the Lusk Ambulance Service, PO. Box 390, Lusk, WY 82225-0390 would be appreciated by the family.
