

HIATT, ALICE LEOLA BEETHAM
1883-April 1, 1936

A beloved resident of Wheatland since 1904, Mrs. George Hiatt, passed away at her home in Wheatland, Wednesday morning, April 1st. She had been in very poor health for about a year.

Alice Leola Beetham was born in Greeley, Colorado in 1883. She chose for her career, the teaching profession, and taught two terms near here.

On September 15th, 1905, she was united in marriage to George Hiatt.

Mrs. Hiatt, after her marriage, was for a time, county clerk. Later she engaged in business with Mrs. James Hunton. They operated The Fashion Shop, an exclusive and enterprising little business house devoted to ladies' wearing apparel. Mrs. John Dillman later bought the shop.

Mrs. Hiatt is survived by her husband, a daughter, Katherine, one brother, Harry Beetham of Thermopolis, an uncle, Mark Beetham of Denver, and hosts of friends who will greatly miss her.

A private funeral service was held from the Copley Funeral home, Friday afternoon, the Rev. R.E. Morgan officiating. Only relatives and immediate friends were invited. Mrs. Hiatt was laid to rest in the Wheatland cemetery.
