

HIATT, SECELIA LUCRETIA CURTIS
September 27, 1890-August 2, 1918

The funeral services of Mrs. Raymond S. Hiatt, whose death on Tuesday evening, August 2, was briefly reported in last week's issue of The Times, was held on Friday at the Methodist church. Rev. W.L. Wade, Mrs. Hiatt's former pastor, officiating by request of the deceased.

Secelia Lucretia Curtis was born in Merrick county, Nebraska, September 27, 1890. Eleven years later she came with her parents, Mrs. L.K. Curtis, to this vicinity. On March 21, 1911, she was united in marriage to Raymond Scott Hiatt and to them were born four children, Lyman Preston, Charles Kent, Doris Idelle and Secelia Pearl, the latter passing away two years ago at the age of four months. Besides her husband and three small children, she leaves her father and mother, six brothers and four sisters to mourn her untimely departure to the land of eternal rest.

For many years, Mrs. Hiatt had been a faithful member of the Methodist church and with her children had been a regular attendant and worker in the Sunday school. Of a cheerful and sunny temperament, her friends were numbered by her acquaintances, and it may be truly said the loss to earth she is held in memory dear. The sympathy of the whole community is extended to the father and the motherless children.
