

HICKS, ISAAC
?-February 1, 1944

Isaac Hicks of Guernsey was instantly killed Tuesday night of last week in an accident at the Sunrise mine. Dr. Wood, physician at the mine, assumed that Hick's clothing caught in a gear at the screening plant and he was pulled into the machinery.

Mr. Hicks, who is survived by his wife and five children, had resided in the Guernsey community for several years.

Funeral services were conducted Friday, February 4, in Wheatland and burial was in the Wheatland cemetery.
