

Maye E. Hitt

9-10-1991

Funeral services for May E. Hitt, 81, were held Friday, Sept. 13, at 2:30 p.m., at the First Christian Church in Wheatland with Pastor Chet Shaw and Pastor Andy Gudahl officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Hitt died Tuesday, Sept. 10, 1991, at Platte County Memorial Hospital. She was born Aug. 29, 1910, in Julian, Neb., to Maynard and Audrey Huffer.

A waitress by occupation, she worked at the Rainbow Cafe for 15 years, and at Vimbo's Restaurant for five years.

She was married to Don Hitt on June 12, 1974, in Torrington.

She is survived by her husband, Don Hitt, of Wheatland, and a daughter, Dottie Steeley of Wheatland. Two brothers, Donald Huffer of Grand Terrance, Calif., and Russell Huffer of Mills, Wyo., and seven grandchildren, Roseanne Burnett of Wheatland, Bev Orr of Old Town, Ida., Elizabeth Thomas of Cheyenne, Roberta McIntire of Denver, Maureen McIntire of Seattle, Wash., and Chris McIntire and Matt McIntire, both of Denver.

Pallbearers at the service were Hugh Jenkins, Phil Jenkins, Keith Anderson, Neil Stugart, Don Weldon and Ken Jenkins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a son, Bob McIntire, three brothers, Vernon Huffer, Raymond Huffer and Darrel Huffer, and one sister, Betty Bryan.

Her grandchildren served as honorary pallbearers at the service.

Friends who prefer may contribute to the First Christian Church Memorial Fund in Wheatland.