

HITT, NORLAN LEON
July 19, 1924-June 2, 1973

Funeral services were held Tuesday, June 5, 1973, at 10:00 a.m. for Norlan Leon Hitt at the United Methodist Church in Wheatland. The Reverend Elliott Graves officiated.

Mr. Hitt, 48, passed away on Saturday, June 2, 1973, at DePaul Hospital in Cheyenne after a brief illness.

Mr. Hitt was born in Wheatland July 19, 1924. He was a lifetime resident of the Slater area where he was a wheat farmer. He married Gertrude E. Qualls in 1943 in Gering, Nebraska. He was a veteran of World War II in which he enlisted in 1943 and was discharged in 1946. He was stationed on a submarine.

Mr. Hitt is survived by his wife, Gertrude, and two children, Gary and Vickie, at home; his father, Clarence Hitt, Mt. View Towers in Cheyenne; two brothers, Everett Hitt, East Stanwood, Washington and Burdette Hitt, Slater; three sisters, Mrs. Dale Bomhoff, Egbert, Wyoming, Mrs. Joe LaGue, Tacoma, Washington, Mrs. Louis Barrios, Vista, California. Mr. Hitt's mother and one sister, Dora, preceded her in death.

Burial was at the Wheatland Cemetery. Pallbearers included Robert Harvey, Harold Hellbaum, Denzel Moxley, Gerald Havelly, Kohn Artery and John Dockter.

Memorials to the Cancer fund would be appreciated by the family.