

HITT, ROY WILLIAM
October 30, 1897-February 17, 1931

Roy William Hitt was born October 30th, 1897 at Tarkio, Mo., and died February 17th, 1931. He enlisted in the United States army in 1914 and did service overseas. At the close of the war he returned to the home of his father at Loomis, Nebr., and later on came to Wyoming and was united in marriage to Mabel Jessen. Mr. Hitt suffered severely from the effects of being gassed while overseas which finally caused his death.

There is a longing in our home
There's a need that God alone can fill.

There is work for us in love,
Until our hearts are still.
