

Molly D. Hobbs

2-4-1989

Services for Molly D. Hobbs, 87, of Ellettsville, IN were held Tuesday at 9 a.m. at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Wheatland, with Rev. Randall Golter officiating.

Mrs. Hobbs died Feb. 4, 1989, at the Bloomington Hospital in Bloomington, IN. She was born July 19, 1901, in Wichita, KN. She was the daughter of George and Elizabeth (Fischer) Fertig and she moved with the family when she was age four to Wyoming. She married John Hobbs on Jan. 15, 1925, in Wheatland and after their marriage, they lived on a ranch west of town. Molly was very active at the Trinity Lutheran Church where she taught Sunday School for 27 years. She was also active in the Hospital Auxiliary in Wheatland.

Survivors include a daughter Patty J. Pitcher of Ellettsville, IN; two sisters, Kathleen Starr of Guernsey and Pearl Wilson of Wheatland; one grandson John D. Pitcher and one granddaughter Teresa H. Steadman.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, one son, two sisters and four brothers.

Memorials to either the Trinity Lutheran Church or the Platte County Memorial Hospital would be appreciated by the family.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery. Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of the arrangements.

Serving as pallbearers were Sumner Shockley, Hugo Lenz, Lucien Troughon, James Bohl, Don, Sherard, and Edward Sorge.