

Buddy Hohnholt

Funeral services for Buddy Hohnholt, 53, were held Tuesday, Nov. 29, 1988 at 10:30 a.m. at the First Baptist Church in Wheatland with Rev. Marlin Driskell officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Hohnholt died Tuesday, Oct. 20, 1988 north of Hartville, from exposure. He was found on Tuesday, Nov. 22, 1988.

He was born Nov. 17, 1934 in South Bend, Ind., the son of Oliver and Ruth (VanScoik) Hohnholt. As an infant in 1935 he moved to Wheatland with his family. He was reared and educated in Wheatland, graduating from the Wheatland High School in 1954. He then moved to Casper in 1954, working in the construction business.

Hohnholt was married to Bonnie Peterson on Dec. 17, 1957 in Casper.

In 1959 he moved back to Wheatland where he worked with his father in operating Sport's Tire and Battery until the early 1970's. He then went to work for the Weed and Pest District.

In 1982 Hohnholt started his own spraying business for weed and pest control. He served on the Weed and Pest Council State Board for six years, serving as their vice-president for a time. He was a lobbyist for six years, and was one of the people responsible for getting the statewide weed and pest acts passed. He was a member of the Wheatland Jaycees for several years.

Hohnholt is survived by his wife Bonnie of Wheatland, sons Mark and Mike of Wheatland, daughter-in-law Alana Hohnholt of Wheatland, brother Clyde of Saudia Arabia and granddaughter Kaitlin Hohnholt of Wheatland.

He was preceded in death by his parents and granddaughter Bailey Hohnholt.

Serving as pallbearers were Mike Johnston, Albert Prather, Hal Ashenhurst, Ernie Kittell, Phil Kahler, and Fred Osborn.

Serving as honorary pallbearers were Bernie Matthews, Dwight Williams, Roy Reichenbach and Ruchen Schwartzkopf.

A memorial to the Buddy Hohnholt Memorial Fund would be equally appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
