

Krysteen M. Hooley

September 27, 1923-July 25, 2000

Services for Krysteen M. Hooley, 76, were held Friday, July 28, 2000 at 2 p.m. at Platte Funeral Chapel with Pastor Andy Gudahl of the First Christian Church officiating.

Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery with military graveside rites.

Mrs. Hooley died Tuesday, July 25, 2000 at Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland.

Krysteen was born September 27, 1923 in Wilmington, N.C., the daughter of Rod and Willie (McCormick) McLucas. She was reared and educated in South Carolina. Mrs. Hooley joined the United States Navy on February 17, 1944 and served until her discharge on January 5, 1946. She served as a messenger at the U.S. Naval Repair Base in San Diego.

While in the service, Krysteen met her husband, Stanley T. Hooley. After Mr. Hooley's return from serving overseas, he and Krysteen were married in Wheatland on November 26, 1945.

After the service, they made their home on a ranch at Cassa, Wyo. for 34 years. They moved to Wheatland in December 1977, residing there until her death. Krysteen was a member of the American Legion Ora Call Post No. 10.

She is survived by her husband of 54 years, Stanley T. Hooley of Wheatland; a son, Alex Spencer Hooley of Newcastle; a sister, Lynn Beckom of Hickory, N.C.; and several nieces and nephews.

Krysteen was preceded in death by her parents; one brother; and two sisters.

Serving as pallbearers were Quentin Hooley, Jack Shelton, Bob Eller, Lyle Moffitt, Jim Dunham and Chuck Shellhart.

Memorials to the American Heart Association, 1807 Capitol Avenue, Suite 109, Cheyenne, WY 82001 would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
