

HOWELL, NELL BRADLEY
?-1945

Mrs. Sam Howell passed away in the Wheatland General hospital this morning at 2:30 a.m. following a one day stay there. She had been in poor health the past few years.

Nell Bradley Howell, 48, was born in Huntsville, Mo. In 1917, she was united in marriage to Samuel Howell at Cheyenne and has since made her home in this community on their ranch located 16 miles southwest of Wheatland. She was affiliated with the Baptist church.

Besides her husband, she is survived by one son, John Gibson of the U.S. army serving overseas and two grandchildren, Jimmy and Lois Gibson who stayed with their grandparents and attended Slate Creek school last year, but are now residing in Missouri; also a number of other relatives in Missouri.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Schrader Funeral home are incomplete at this time pending word from relatives.