

MADLINE M. HUBBARD

Services for Madeline Hubbard, 69, who died June 4 in San Diego, Cal. were held Thursday, at the First Christian Church in Wheatland with Dan Barcus officiating.

Madeline "Sally" Mae Hubbard was born in Butte, Mont. At the age of three she moved with her family to Denver where she attended schools and graduated from high school.

She then worked for Mountain Bell Telephone Company. She married Alfred Wise and the couple resided in various towns in Colorado until Mr. Wise died in 1970.

She remained in Colorado until Nov. 9, 1972 when she married Cliff Hubbard and they made their home in Wheatland. She was a member of the First Christian Church of Wheatland.

She is survived by three sons: Jim Wise, Loveland, Colo., Jack Wise of San Diego, Cal., Wayne Wise of Williston, N.D.; by a stepson, Chris Hubbard of Arvada, Colo. and by nine grandchildren.

Besides her first husband she was preceded in death by one brother.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Platte County Hospital Nursing Wing.

Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
